ACKNOWLEDGEMENT'S

Fleshing up this thesis had been a most rewarding one what with the many trials and obstacles which I had to overcome. I owe this to many dear people whose unsolicited support and kindness enabled me to crystalize all the loose ends. It is a matter of course, therefore, that I wish to thank and acknowledge all of them particularly:

Prof. Leonora de Gugman, Dean of the CHU College of Social Tork, my thesis adviser, whose moral and inspiring support and advice challenged me to keep going;

Deputy Minister and officer-in-charge Sylvia P. Montes of the Ministry of Social Service and Development (MSSD), my critic and Panel Chairman, whose invaluable comments and suggestions made this thesis significant and meaningful;

Dr. Paz Policarpio-Mendez, Dean of the CEU Graduate School, who helped and encouraged me to pursue the subject for study;

The members of my panel, Dr. Leonora Guerrero of the Ministry of Education and Culture, National Capital Region, for her academic suggestions to improve the study; CENTRO SCOLAR ENIVERSITY GRUNATE DOL

Dr. Solvacion 3. Mateix of the JEF Graduate School, for final editing and facilitating the early scholuling of my defense:

Mrs. Dridget R. Galdri, Professor of the UP Institute of Mass Communication, by recerch consultant, who was involved from the initial planning at the study and until the coluci proparation of the same ript, and who wont out of her way to always remind so af by throtable;

Mr. Looule Yap, Elmor Sergio, and Eddy Armandi of the Ministry of Public Information, who went over the ray manuscript;

Pirector Bonjamin V. Afuang, my inmudiate separior, who allowed no to work with a logger load onabling no to concontrate on this study;

The members of my staff and sympathetic officemates Jese Carcio, Lucy Baino, Anchello Coriago, Noth Colut, Nyrma Euranan, and Dd Macabulos, who assisted me in typing the first duaft;

My mother and late father, my brother David, nephew, misses and special persons, Ud and Ophler Daby Aballera, Typ and Roger, who stood by me unfaillingly as I went through the todious process of theols making.
