COMMISSION ON HIGHER-EDUCATION Office of the President of the Philippines

July 17, 1995

C H E D ORDER No. 26, s. 1995

POLICIES AND GUIDELINES FOR EXTENSION CLASSES

To: CHED Regional Directors
Presidents of Private Colleges and Universities
Presidents of State Colleges and Universities
Heade of CHED-Supervised Institutions

1.0 GENERAL POLICY

The Commission on Higher Education encourages Higher Education Institutions with the capability to offer extension classes to implement such alternative delivery systems for the purpose of expanding access to quality education for the greater number of Filipino students or to showcase the best of the Filipino educational system.

2.0 EXTENSION CLASSES DEFINED:

An extension class is a class or progress normally offered by a recognized educational institution in its main compuse but which will now be offered in another location not otherwise specified in the Government Permit to Operate a Program issued to the Institution by the Commission on Higher Education. In the case of foreign educational institutions, an extending class in the DAL Hombines are Programs normally offer and the Commission of the squivalent in their home country.

3.0 IMPLEMENTING GUIDELINES

3.1 Schools Qualified to Operate Extension Classes

3.1.1 Higher Education Institutions with programs correctived at Level III by any of the recognized accrediting bodies in the Philippines or its equivalent as recognized by CHED may offer extension classes for such programs. Educational Institutions with on-going extension classes but whose accreditation status for DMP Bldg., San Higsel Avenue, Ortigas Center, Pasig City, Philippines Tels. 633-55-73; 632-78-62; 633-19-25; 633-19-81; 635-58-28/Fax 635-19-27 these programs have not complied with the Level III requirement are hereby given a grace period of two years to comply or phase out the extension class.

3.1.2 Foreign higher education institutions with accredited programs in their home country (at the same support of the same support of the same support of the same support of the same of the section of the same of the section of the same of the section of the same support of the same s

3.2 Processing and Documentation Requirements

- 3.2.1 For Philippine Higher Education Institutions. The following requirements shall be complied by the Philippine Higher Education Institution desiring to open extension classes:
 - a) Proof of program accreditation as stipulated in Section 3.1.1.
 - b) Compliance to CHED's policies and standards for the program in the new site or location.
- In addition, if the program is to be extended outside of the Philippines, the following requirements shall be complied by the HEI:
 - c) Acknowledgment and recognition of the host government of the extension classes to be conducted in their country.
 - d) Concurrence of the Philippines' Department of Foreign Affairs.
 - 3.2.2 For Foreign Higher Education Institution. The following regularements shall be complied by the foreign higher education institution:
 - a) Accreditation papers in the University's home country;
 - b) Accreditation status of the Philippine Higher Education Institution who will administer the program in the Philippines (at least Level II for the program in question);
 - c) Memorandum of Agreement between the foreign university and the Philippine HEI.

Principal Company of the

4.0 FILING OF APPLICATION TO OPERATE EXTENSION CLASSES

The Institutions concerned shell file their applications to fire extension classes one year paint to the introded operation of the program. The institutions shall comply with the provisions of CHED Order No. 2, s. 1995 or "Opening of New Programs".

5.0 EFFECTIVITY. This Order shall take effect immediately

(SGD.) ANGEL C. ALCALS Chairman

Per Resolution dated 17 July 1995.

EMP/bec ched order/memo extesion.ord