God is an active programmer in the affairs of men. In a special sense I would like to acknowledge that power in my life. I believe He has a special place for me in His work. How I made it to the Graduate School at Philippine Union College, almost two years ago, can be attributed to His providential leading.

Dr. Delfe B. Alsaybar, the dean of the Graduate School, was instrumental in making possible my graduate education in cooperation with the officers of Central Philippine Union Mission and the Fuller Scholarship Program. To him, and the rest who made my stay possible, I owe my special thanks!

To Dr. Thomas Geraty, whose summer term in the Graduate School influenced me to pursue this present work, I owe an appreciation. I also would like to acknowledge the following individuals who made my thesis possible: To Dr. Roy Ryan, my thesis director, who in spite of a heavy assignment, attended to the speedy finishing of this thesis; to Dr. Maria G. Tumangday, the acting dean of the Graduate School of Education; to Dr. Esmeraldo A. de Leon, the chairman of my Committee; and the members of my Committee, Drs. Samuel A. Ladion, Engracia A. Rasa; to all my professors whose expertise in different scholastic fields helped in the accomplishment of my graduate program; to my classmates and everyone who, in one way or another, contributed to the large and small bits of work that needed to be done, I give my heartfelt thanks!

The greater chunk of my heart goes to my dear ones whom God has given for a dear home in Silang Campus; my dear wife, Mrs. Marianita Manatad-Sarsoza; my children Junjun, Bambi and Hearty Christian. I love them all!

I. B. S.
