ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

The author of this thesis wishes to express her sincere and deep appreciation and heartfelt gratitude to the following who in one way or the other have greatly shared their generosity in the realization and completion of this study.

She is most grateful to Mrs. Natividad M. Santos, her thesis adviser, presently guidance counselor in Maryknoll College and Professor in the Graduate School, Ortanez University, for her guidance, encouragement and suggestion in the making of this thesis.

To my close, understanding and kind hearted friends:

Mrs. Bella Nipales, Guidance Counselor of Pura V. Kalaw Elementary School for her encouragement and valuable help in her research work.

Mrs. Divina Hernandez, a principal of Ugong Norte, and constant companion in doing research work.

Mrs. Veng Dumlao, District P.E. Coordinator of Pura V. Kalaw Elementary School for her sisterly dealing with the writer.

To Miss Cristina Cohosa, District Supervisor of Pura V. Kalaw Elementary School, to Mrs. Leonora Lumanlan, her principal, and her co-teachers of Pura V. Kalaw Elementary School, who inspired her to write her thesis.

To her former principal, Mrs. Jesusa Bautista, now a District Supervisor, who first encouraged her to study.

To all the Graduate Students and Professors in Ortanez University, for their full cooperation in the process of conducting the investigation.

FE F. MAGALLANES

D E D I C A T I O N

To my beloved parents, my husband, children, and close friends, who have given me their abiding devotion, unfailing support and encouragement and made possible the realization of a cherished dream, this thesis is humbly, affectionately, and piously dedicated.
